

Seminars

See schedule for listed times.

Western Mennonite School Campus Tour

- Cheryl Mayo

Service Opportunity

- Rick Troyer

Give an afternoon of your time by volunteering on the WMS campus.

Working and Learning in Haiti

- Jeryl Hollinger

A group from Mountain View Mennonite Church will share about their experiences with Mennonite Central Committee's Work & Learn program in Haiti this past March 12 -26, 2011.

PNMC Finances/Budget

- Ed Miller

Opportunity for questions and discussions related to PNMC finances.

Fish Facts and Fiction

- Joe Ebersole

Fish are everywhere in the Gospel accounts. Jesus multiplied them, the disciples caught them, and followers ate them. Fish even helped teach a lesson or two. Is there anything to be learned from fish today?

A Call to Just Peace in the Global Church

- Weldon Nisly

In this seminar we will explore these recent developments and the challenges and opportunities that God is setting before us with a vision for a global Just Peace and what it means for the Church in general and for Mennonites in particular.

Dwelling in the Word: Reading off the Same Page

- Craig Morton

We'll cover some theological foundations of Dwelling in the Word as well as the implications for congregational and missional life. We will also discuss the various ways to practice Dwelling and how to keep it a meaningful experience.

Hope for the 21st Century

- Peter Lumsdaine

Protecting the sacredness of life and Creation in the Robotic/Biotech Age, and in an era of peak-oil resource wars, from Mexico to the Middle East. With music, eye-witness slides of Iraq & Mexico conflicts, update on resisting robotic warfare.

Mennonite Village – Past Present and Future

- Ron Litwiller

Quilting and Comforter Knotting

- Esther King

Join us for a time of fellowship while knotting a comforter or quilting.

Ministry to the Aging

- Lynn Miller and Ron Litwiller

We will explore ways you and your congregation can enrich the lives of the seniors in your congregation.

Sisterly Connections

- Panel (organized by Kathy Bilderback)

A seminar of encouragement and inspiration to promote connections with women in the church and community.

Voices From No-Man's Land: the stories of undocumented Mennonites in the USA (bilingual English/Spanish session)

- Wendell Amstutz

Many immigrant families in our churches have members who cannot obtain legal status for different reasons under the current laws. Several church members share what living on this shifting edge of "legality" has meant for their families, their hopes, their faith. A brief Q and A session will follow.

The Way Truth Comes to Life: The Millennial Generation Meets the Mennonite Church - Meghan Good

A conversation regarding the challenges facing the Mennonite Church as it ponders what it might take to reach a new generation of young adults.

El Ayuno y la Obediencia (Fasting and Obedience)

- Victor Vargas

Creation Care

- Ross Miller

Ross Miller, a retired pastor and member of the steering committee for The Interfaith Network for Earth Concerns, will share about his passion for caring for God's earth.