

PREVENTION OF CLERGY MISCONDUCT

February 17, 2012

Zion Mennonite Church

8:00 AM-5:00 PM (lunch included)

This important workshop is designed to assist pastors & church leaders establish & maintain healthy personal boundaries while in ministry.

Participants will discover:

- Why ministry is a position of power
- How spiritual intimacy can become distorted
- What the risk factors are for clergy misconduct and how difficult it can be to recognize the signs
 - Identify the issues surrounding touch
 - How good self-care is the best prevention
- Resources for yourself and your congregation

Presented by

Marlene Bogard,

Minister of Christian Formation and Resource Library Director for the Western District Conference, Mennonite Church USA. She is certified by the Faith Trust Institute, a nationally recognized leader in sexual abuse prevention.

Donations will be accepted to help cover workshop expenses.

Hosted by Zion Mennonite Church, Hubbard, OR

Please register by contacting Barb Buxman

office@pnmc.org

503-349-5420